Current Responsibility

Michelle (Klein) Robb is an actuary with the Milwaukee office of Milliman. She joined the firm in 2013.

Professional Work Experience

Michelle has over 10 years of actuarial experience in various areas of healthcare.

Her primary areas of expertise are working with pharmaceutical manufacturers, payers in the Medicare Advantage and commercial markets, and organizations looking to understand health equity issues.

Other clients have included provider-owned health plans, Consumer Operated and Oriented Plans (CO-OPs), Medicaid plans, employer groups, and provider groups.

She has assisted payers in various markets in developing profitability analyses, health equity studies, and pricing and filing plans; conducting feasibility analyses; and developing risk adjustment models. She has also worked with pharmaceutical manufacturers, pharmacy benefit managers, and industry organizations with various types of commercial and Medicare modeling.

She also contributes to Milliman's Medicare research efforts.
